“ I’m truly grateful for the friendship I shared with Lynne’s family over the years. I watched the boys grow up to be awesome young men and fathers. The love and devotion Lynne shared with her husband Ed. Lynne was an amazing mother and wife. Becoming a grandmother was a new dimension of the love she shared. Lynne’s demonstrated her professional and compassionate care as a neonatal nurse and team player. Her commitment was second to none. It has been a blessing and an honor to have known her.

“ Lynne, our love of the ocean came from our growing up with Lake Michigan. All those incredibly fun memories! And the peace of falling asleep at night to the sound of the waves and often the foghorn.

“ My precious sister. Lynne, I will always cherish our almost nightly talks and praying together. It was such a blessing that with each year we got older, we grew even closer. It didn't matter how many miles separated us. I love how honest we were with each other. And now, though there's this deep emptiness in my heart without you, I have such joy knowing you are with Jesus and that you finally have no more fear or anxiety. Give Mama, Papa, and Todd hugs for me. Can't wait till I see you all again. I love you. Keri

“ It was a joy for me to see the Lord's answer to our prayers, particularly Eric's faithful petition that his mom would start coming to the Freedom That Lasts Ministry at Faith Baptist. Mrs. St. Pierre became a faithful and diligent student of the Word of God and made many friends here. On one occasion I happened to sit near her and asked how she liked the FTL ministry. I was met with an immediate, sparkling smile that now, looking back after her homegoing to Jesus, that this was a special gift of fellowship the Lord blessed her with before taking her home to Heaven. Praise the Lord for her sweet, genuine testimony of God's goodness!

God bless you for this testimony about my sister. She spoke with me every Saturday about the things she was learning at your Friday night Freedom sessions. You all were a true blessing to Lynne and to Eric. I know Jesus was so joyous to welcome Lynne into His Kingdom.
