“ Charles helped me for years with my elderly horse; hauled him to the vet's office several times, fenced off a special safe place for him to graze, provided him with pretty hay to eat. His generosity won't be forgotten. He will certainly be missed. Prayers to Debbie and Melissa that memories of happier times will ease your sadness.

*Charles was a great friend, and I will surely miss him. It was always great seeing him at the Walking Horse show in Shelbyville, and we'd talk for hours about Ford trucks, and how they were his favorite. May he forever rest in peace.
