“ Dear Dwynell, Karen, Keith, and Joyce
How sad for those who must say goodbye to dear Mabel at this time. The world will miss her laughter, her song, her amazing spirit, and most of all her love. Have peace in your life knowing that she will watch over you until the joyous day you all meet in paradise.
Love, Now, and Always,

“ My sincerest sympathies to Uncle Dwynel, Keith, Karen and Joyce. I deeply regret not being able to attend Aunt Mabel's service. Mabel was always such a dear Aunt and had such a warm, loving and positive spirit that you wanted to be near. Even miles away here in Washington, it is as if a light has went out and there is something so important missing. Please know that you are all in my heart and prayers.##imported-begin##Pamela Stahl-Dogris##imported-end##

“ Dear Dwynell,
It is almost impossible to remember when most of us knew that soon you two would be married. We also knew that you two would be on the road for our blessed Saviour. Your music has blessed and enlived all of us and of course it's a large crowd to recall. Thank you for the music and love you have given us all.

“ Deepest sympathy in the passing of Mabel Howard Dill. Brings back memories of all the people I knew, including her family and most of her siblings. I am forever blessed to have heard her sing in the Church of God trio with Mary Ann Howell and Sue Akrey. She was a wonderful child of God, with a very special alto voice. My prayers are with you, Dwynell, and with your family. You, yourself, are one of the best piano players I ever heard.
