“ Mrs. Abbott was a dear woman and I miss her already. She would have Katie and I over for tea while we were going to school in Lynchburg and she would tell wonderful tales of her midwifery days and her children and so many interesting things. She would have us in gales of laughter and I still have a good many Abbott-isms that I use and remember fondly. She loved the Lord; she was sweet; she was quirky, and her willingness to befriend us college gals was a blessing that still touches my life.

“ Mairi reached out to me when I was a college student in Lynchburg, Virginia. We shared tea and recipes and knitting patterns during the six or more years I was in Lynchburg. Even though she was an older lady and I was a young girl, I counted her as a true friend, not just a mentor. She kept in touch with me when I moved away and sent gifts when my first child was born. Her fortitude and cheerfulness were a profound example to me then and will remain with me always.

“ My family and I are praying for you as you honor Mairi today. She was a good friend to share a cup of tea and McVites digestives with. I was amazed at her remembrance of scripture and other recitations from her school days. Mairi spoke lovingly of her children and grandchildren and I'm so grateful she was able to spend her last days with her children. It's a comfort to know she is healed from all the woes of this world. May you find comfort in the one true God as she did. Psalm 116:15

“ I have many fond memories of sweet Mairi, she was a member at Grace OPC in Lynchburg with us until we moved to Tn. My family and I lived close to her and my son would sometimes mow her grass or help to fix things. She hosted my daughter's bridal shower, which was a great blessing. I am praying for you and your family at this hard time of loss, but I am so thankful she is with the Lord and that she is not suffering any more. She never complained (except of being cold) and now she is in perfect comfort with the Lord. My sympathies to all her family! Marcia Clauson
