“ Todd and Jared, what a wonderful blessing Malane was to you as wife and mother! Now... she is enjoying the awesome, immediate presence of our Lord. We grieve with you... her absence here! Her life on earth was so useful and meaningful! Meanwhile, we look forward with great anticipation to the eternal reunion ahead as we follow her Lord Jesus Christ. Malane's earthly tent is folded, and now she forever lives with Him! Surely her prayers for you continue in heaven.

What good memories we have of her! She was a real Christian with a great sense of humor. She enriched Holmes Bible College both as a student and as an employee. It was a privilege and pleasure to know her and to serve with her. And we know she loved Todd and Jared so very much. She still does.

May the wonderful Holy Spirit, with Whom she was well acquainted, give you incredible peace and joy as you move forward with your lives. Your "normal" will never be the same, but the grace He gave her to depart this life is no less real than the grace He will give you to live well as your own lives continue here on earth.

*With our love and prayers for you two and all her family,
Jim and Linda White*

“ Gail, Len ,Todd , Jared and Family- Please accept our sympathy and condolences in this difficult time. We have the promise that even though we pass from this frail existence , we shall inherit His everlasting peace and comfort . Malane's Christian upbringing served to be a compass in her life's mission .

We didn't get to see her often, but we will remember her smile and laugh.

“ Malane has been a member of our family since my daughter Emily, married Todd's brother, Chris in 2006. In 10 ten years of knowing Malane, I have learned to love and respect her meek and quiet spirit. She was the epitome of kindness to her mother during years of illness; she was a fun aunt that was always willing to come and get Carter and take him with her to "go have fun with my nephew"; her heart was overflowing with pride over her only son Jared, already serving his country as a "Young Marine." She was a loyal wife to her husband Todd, who will work 2 or 3 jobs at any time to be sure his family's need were provided for. She was a faithful worker at her son's school for many years, even when she had taken ill.

During our family's deepest valley, when we all suffered the unspeakable loss of sweet baby Myles, Malane came to the hospital to hold him and cuddle him sweetly every day for several hours. She stayed by our side through the short days of his life and death, his funeral and the grieving time afterward with such empathy and kindness.

Last year, I went to Myles' grave to place flowers there for this 1st birthday. When I got there, the entire grave site was decorated with balloons, flowers, and a card from Aunt Malane.....She had remembered his birthday and had quietly come early in the day to honor him before anyone else that day.

Malane...meekness, kindness, long-suffering, peaceful, loving.....

No one can ever fill your shoes.....
