

Marc Haynes Molloy

March 10, 1955 - September 19, 2022

Marc Haynes Molloy, 67, passed away September 19, 2022.

A native of Lawrenceburg, Tennessee, son of the late Laurence Benjamin and Letitia Jane Jakes Molloy, he was a patient transport systems manager and of the Christian faith.

Surviving are two sons, John Molloy (Rebecca) and Matthew Molloy (Chrissy) all of Knoxville, Tennessee; one brother, Jon Molloy (Joe) of Summertown, Tennessee; two sisters, Kim Moses (Charles) of Dallas, Texas and Kerri Tuten (Hank) of Sydney, Australia; four grandchildren, Paige, Brie, Katelyn, and Izzie; and his loving companion, Wanda Green of Greer.

He was predeceased by three brothers, Larry Molloy, Mike Molloy, and Brian Molloy.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Tribute Wall

SB

“ Marc was my husband's roommate at NHC. Our family became his family and we all loved him and miss him.

Sandy and Bill Bright

Sanders Bright - September 25, 2022 at 06:15 PM

KN

“ John, Matt and families,
I'm so sorry to hear about your dad. He was great to work with and always kind to people we worked with. My thoughts and prayers 🙏 are with you. Kelly Noel

Kelly Noel - September 24, 2022 at 08:41 PM

GD

“ I worked with Marc at Baptist Hospital for some time. He was not only a great employee but my good friend. I am so sorry to hear this. May God be the great comforter to Marc's family

Glenda Darden - September 19, 2022 at 09:54 PM

JS

I took care of Mr. Molloy for a year at NHC, he was a very nice man. He will be missed at NHC; to his family I am very sorry for your loss.

Jennifer Abdul Shahiid - September 24, 2022 at 08:37 AM

TO

“ Sorry for your loss. Marc was a very nice person and will be missed. Thelma D Owings

Thelma Owings - September 19, 2022 at 05:30 PM