

Marcelle McDade

July 6, 1929 - May 10, 2020

Marcelle Cash McDade, 90, widow of Roy Dale McDade, passed away May 10, 2020.

A native of Gaffney, daughter of the late Jefferson Davis and Lula Hamrick Cash, she was a retired teacher for Greenville County School District. While growing up in Gaffney, she was a member of Macedonia Baptist Church. After moving to Greenville, she joined Augusta Heights Baptist Church.

Surviving are a daughter, Brenda Plowden (Jerry) of Taylors; one son, Phil McDade of the home; one brother, Kenneth Cash of Gaffney; six grandchildren, Daniel, Natalie, Kevin, Steven, Tracy and Amanda; and five great-grandchildren.

Mrs. McDade was predeceased by two sons, Donald McDade and Joseph McDade and siblings, Cecil, Edith, Victoria, Geneva, Thelma, Jeffie, Jamous, Willene and Clyde.

A private graveside service will be held at Woodlawn Memorial Park conducted by Rev. Bryon McIntyre.

The family is at the home her daughter, Brenda Plowden.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com