“ Dear Barry and family,

We are saddened by the news of your mother's death, but we must remember that she is not dead, but in heaven singing and rejoicing with her Heavenly Father and a multitude of His angels. She will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

“ Jim,

We would like to share the following poem which has helped us in many ways.

Do not stand at my grave and weep,

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am in a thousand winds that blow,

I am the softly falling snow.

I am the gentle showers of rain,

I am the fields of ripening grain.

I am in the morning hush,

I am in the graceful rush

Of beautiful birds in circling flight,

I am the starshine of the night.

I am in the flowers that bloom,

I am in the quiet room.

I am in the birds that sing,

I am in each lovely thing.

Do not stand at my grave and cry,

I am not there I did not die.

Our deepest sympathy,
