

Margaret Atkins

June 19, 1924 - February 16, 2012

Margaret Atkins, 87, of W. Gap Creek Road, expired Wednesday at her residence, Ashlan Village in Lyman.

She is survived by her sister, Mildred Sloan, her daughter, Kathy Sullivan Center, and her grandson, Bo Sullivan.

The family wishes to express their love and appreciation to the staff and residents of Ashlan Village in Lyman. Their love and support during the past two years have given us an extended family for which we are deeply grateful. Honorable mention, as well must be given to the staff of Gentiva Hospice of Greenville. You provided strength, comfort, care and support during our most difficult time; God sent you and you will not be forgotten.

“Marge” was fun-loving, sassy, flirty and a lover of life. A wonderful mother and grandmother, she will be remembered as she was.

Memorials may be made to Gentiva Hospice, 430 Roper Mountain Road, Suite F, Greenville, SC 29615.

A private service is planned and burial will be in Wood Memorial Park.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

“ To Bo,

We are so incredibly sorry for your loss, and understand that although your grandmother has gone on to glory, it still hurts to lose her here on earth. Please know that the Smith family loves you, and we are lifting you and your momma up in prayer.

Love,

Kermit and Rebecca##imported-begin##Kermit and Rebecca Smith##imported-end## “ Kathy, i am so sorry for your loss. i always liked your mom, she was always very friendly to me. i had missed seeing you and her when i went to vote, but i am sorry to know that her health had been failing and i knew nothing of it. please know you will be in my prayers as you go through this time of sorrow. i will always be your friend, even if we do not see each other very often. i think of you and your mom every time i pass by on my way over to my mom and dads.

love and best wishes
