“ To the family and friends of Ms. Margaret Brannon, My sincere condolences to you and your family for your loss. May you take comfort in God's promise of the resurrection found at John 5:28, 29-"Do not marvel at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This promise helps me during difficult times as this and I hope you can find comfort as well.
With deepest sympathy.

“ Max, Dee and Family,

We were so sorry to hear about Margaret's passing. She was such a special lady to both of us and she will be greatly missed. She had such a sweet spirit, and she's showering Heaven with it right now. We know that comfort can only come from God, and He will be with you in the days and months ahead. We love you all and will be praying for you. If there's anything we can do for any of you, please let us know.

*Love you,
Bill and Sandy Poole*

“ Max, I agree 100% with Judy Cartwright, my best 1st grade friend, that Margaret is having a fantastic reunion with her Victor Mill sisters. I know my mother, Marie Pritchard, is right in the center of the fun. My dad, Ralph Pritchard, who pushed the "dope wagon" in the mill, is bringing them a "dope". You are probably too young to remember that cokes were called "dopes" back in those days, and the term "pushing the dope wagon" is not a politically correct statement now days. One of Mother's last wishes was that she could go and see Margaret and give her a hug. She was not able to make that trip, but we were able to remember the times that we walked to your house when you, Delores, and Dale were little. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this time of sadness.

God Bless You,

“ *Max, Juddie & Melia,
I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Margaret was a beautiful lady inside & out & I know she will be missed dearly. You & your family are in my prayers during this difficult time. Just remember this isn't goodbye, but I'll see you later. I hope you take comfort in knowing you will see her again soon & she is rejoicing with our Lord right now. I love you all!!!*
