

Margaret Burke

December 17, 1927 - August 20, 2010

Heading: Margaret Burke

Dateline: Greer

Margaret Healy Burke died Friday August 20, 2010 at the McCall Hospice House near Greenville, SC after a brief illness.

Margaret was born in Stoneham, MA where she attended St. Mary's Catholic School. She continued her strong faith in God her entire life as a long time parishioner of All Souls Catholic Church in Sanford, Florida where she was a member of the Women's Club, a Eucharistic Minister to the Sick, and she devoted countless hours in service to the church and her community.

A homemaker for most of her life Margaret will be remembered for her hospitality toward others and her phenomenal cooking which she enjoyed sharing with her friends and family.

She is survived by her daughters Jennifer Brown, and Robin Ramp and her sons Jeffery and Jonathan Burke, as well as ten grandchildren, and five great grandchildren.

She will be put to rest with her husband of 58 years Roy Burke at the Georgia National Veterans Cemetery in Canton, Georgia.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Previous Events

Service

AUG 24. 11:00 AM (ET)

Blessed Trinity Catholic Church
901 River Road
Greer, SC