“ We were missionaries on furlough and lived in the little house next to Margaret and "Little Girl". I don't know what me or my children would have done that year without her kindness and wisdom, and motherly love. My daughter was 3 at the time, and she had made a well-trodden path to Margaret's back door. When Rebekah went missing I knew exactly where she was! Our family loved her so much and have never forgotten the happy moments we spent with her in a place where we had no family and few friends. She cared for us and her kindness will forever stay a fond memory in our hearts. My daughter is 15 now, and still talks about the fun we had when we lived next to "Miss Margaret", (and Little Girl). She was a special lady.
