“ Dear Family:

We were sad to learn of Margaret's death. She was such a sweet spirited woman and we enjoyed being with her on more than one occasion. Our Aunt Geri Melton and her were good friends and we played cards with them and often ate lunch with them at Rolling Green. Aunt Geri has since moved to the Cottages at Brushy Creek and she missed seeing Margaret. May your many happy memories keep her close to your heart. May God's grace and mercy give you peace and strength during this sad time. We can rejoice in the promise that we will see her again in Heaven with our Savior. With our sympathy and prayers.
