“Margaret was a loving and caring person. We went to church with her, Heyward, and their girls at Friendship Baptist Church. When I was a teenager, Margaret and Heyward invited the young people to their beautiful home many Sunday nights after church. Margaret would have lots of great refreshments for us. We always felt welcome at her home. This meant a lot to us teens and twenties because Margaret and Heyward had us at their home on a regular basis. They were the only couple that loved us enough to show us by providing a safe, Christian home where we could “hang out”. Margaret and Heyward had big hearts. I will always remember how Margaret put her love into action. She loved Heyward, Jennifer, and Kimberly fiercely. I was blessed to have some of that love in my life, too!!

Margaret and I were friends for the last 10 or 15 years. She was such a strong faithful lady. She loved her children and grandchildren fiercely. She will be missed.

“ I’ve languished for days on how best to share a memory of Aunt Margaret.

As we age, memories are a wonderful thing.

Tears of joy roll down our cheeks and we taste the saltiness.

My favorite memory of Aunt Margaret and Uncle Hayward are spending a few Saturday nights at their home.

Sunday morning Aunt Margaret would dress me in my little frilly dress, my little gloves, my patent leather shoes and we would all go to church at Little Mountain. Although yellowed with age, I still have that little pair of white church gloves. She always had candy or gum in her purse for me.

Beautiful heartfelt service.

God is rejoicing at the homecoming of one of his faithful servants.

Aunt Margaret is reunited with all those that have gone before.

Rest in the Arms Aunt Margaret.

I will see you soon.

Love and Prayers for all.

“ Jennifer, Kimberly, and the rest of the family our thoughts and prayers go with each of you through this time of sorrow. Margaret was a part of my life for over one and a half years and I learned to love her as others did. I miss our almost daily talks during that time, some were very pleasant, some she gave me a piece of her mind, but I still loved her. She loved her family and told me this many times. May the peace and comfort of our Heavenly Father be upon each of you.

“ Aunt Margaret was a wonderful, caring person. My fondest memory was the Mountain trips. Our eating lots of good food. I am sure there are a few of you remember the shopping trip to buy shoes, what a "Hoot", we tried on so many pairs of shoes that day. Thank you, Margaret for being the kind of Aunt we all should be. Rest in peace with all our loved ones, Kiss Mom and Daddy for me. I will miss you, I love you.
