“ Margaret Vaughn - I knew her as Grandma. She spoiled me rotten, not with possessions but with love. She always made me feel special. She was a great cook and she made the best macaroni pie and sweet tea. I loved that she would let me eat biscuits right out of the can. She always had little tid-bits of advice to share with me especially when I got to be a teenager, and then other stages in my life. I remember seeing her reading her Bible and praying daily. Later I appreciated that as I realized that she was praying for me. She prayed over all of her family, friends and church on a regular basis. It has been a blessing to have had her in my life for 41 years. I miss her greatly but I'm thankful for the impact that she has had on my life and that she was able to be apart of the lives of my children.##imported-begin##Jennifer Chaney##imported-end##
