“ Clarlyne and Family, What a lady you had for a Mom, Grandmom, etc... She left an impression on my Life that will never be forgotten. Now she knew what truly being a neighbor was all about. I remember all the times when my Grandparent's store was still opened, when your Mom would come across the road, or your Grandmother to get what they needed from the store. I also remember when sorrow hit our family....the same Margarett and Mary Lee were there as always to attend to our needs. You just don't forget those things. My Grandparents(Robert and Lillian) could have searched the world over and never found another family to cherish for neighbors as they always did with the Youngs, and then later, also Ira. It's a shame we're all so far apart now, but please know that our hearts and prayers are with you in the days to come. Love Always, Sondra Newman Smith

“ Dear Family... What a family of neighbors for our family to have been blessed with for so many years! We can still see Margarett walking the path from her house to Mothers and Dad's to bring Daddy Pumpkin pie, because she knew how much he loved it. People just don't share each other's lives for 50 years as neighbors anymore. She has been missed since she's been away, and will forever be missed in our hearts. Love, Bill and Betty Newman(Robert & Lillian Jones' Daughter)
