“ Cathy, our heartfelt sympathy for the loss of your mother. Never met her but watching your posts on FB as you cared for her was a blessing. Mya God send His comforter to you and the family to walk with you as you all grieve. Death is not the extinguishing of life but rather turning out the lamp because one has come to the eternal light. God bless!

Cathy, Michael & Families, my heart is sad in the loss of sweet Margie, a good mother and my friend for a long time. We can rejoice in her all new body and in Heaven with Olin and other family members gone before. May God's love wrap you all in His grace, mercy, and peace during this most difficult time. Our precious memories will bring us some joy and comfort over the coming times to keep her close to our hearts. My sympathy and prayers as we rejoice in her eternal healing and Heavenly home with our Savior. We will meet her again
"In the sweet bye and bye" - oh what a day that will be. God bless each of you in a special way.
With my love ❤️ and prayers 🙏
