“ To All Medlock Family; especially Beth and David and Family: Margie was a Lady who loved life and family in so many ways. she was always looking on the positive side even while facing the unknowns. YOU have many wonderful memories to hold in your hearts that will help you move on in life. WE send you our heart felt sympathy and know while we cannot be there in person, we are there in spirit. May GOD watch over all and lead through not only the next trying days but also life. Sincerely, Mell and Dianne and family
