“ Deepest sympathies to my oldest and dearest friend, Moe, her brothers, and all the family. I loved Marilyn (and Tom) like they were my own parents and I will hold them in my heart forever.

“ How lucky I was to have known Mare! As a close friend of her daughter, Maureen, I was treated to a unique, enriching friendship with a spirited woman whom I loved and respected. Though I only got to know her the past ten or so years, the stories and pictures revealed a life in which family was always most important. Marilyn was always proud of her roots in St. Louis (loved those Cardinals!). A testament to her artistic talent graces many walls in our home. I think one of the things I loved most about Marilyn was her (sometimes scathing) sense of humor! She could deliver a zinger with the best of them. Marilyn was loved by many and touched lives with her unique takes on life. I will miss her sorely, but we will speak of her often and warmly and in doing so, she will always be close and loved. ❤️

“ My sister, also like a mother to me. There are sooo many stories I could share.

Shopping after having her feet operated on her in a wheelchair we went shopping. The time with Maureen we traveled to a Festival to Andy Griffith Show. Don Knots was there. Her lasagna dinners, I always seemed to visit when she was having lasagna for dinner, got to be a joke. Most of all she was my angel she was always there when I needed someone to be with when my husband had cancer. I loved you Marilyn I hope you always knew that.
