“But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words"
(1 Thessalonians 4:13-18).

I'm praying for all my family that the passing of a wonderful friend and grandmother will be a comforting reminder of the coming day when we will be reunited with her to worship and praise our King of kings and Lord of lords for all eternity. I love you all and think of you often.##imported-begin##Lucas Vanderwarker##imported-end##

“*Moe, Phil and all the family,
It really hit me hard to hear of your Mom's passing, so close to my own mother's. I have so many fond memories of times in Salem, your Mom watching LeighAnne and calling us back because she wouldn't stop crying, times at the camp etc etc etc. We are family, not friends and if you ever just need to talk, just call. I'm sure all the fond memories will keep your Mom alive in your hearts. Our prayers and thoughts are with you always.##imported-begin##Karen and Jim Brown##imported-end##*

“ My Mother, my best friend~

I grieve the loss of my best friend. I am truly lost without her. The only thing that gets me through each day is knowing that she is with our Lord, she's without pain, and I will someday see her again. My tears are selfish as it is me missing her, her loving words, her laugh, her guidance, her soft touch, and our daily phone calls. She was the best mother anyone could ever have, as each of my siblings will attest. Words can't describe how much I miss you - Mom ! I love you so very much and know that I will see you again someday.

I hold close to my heart Psalm 46:10 when the question of Why? comes up. I know you don't want us to mourn you, but that is difficult when you were such a very important, special part of each of our lives. You will never be forgotten, but forever missed!

I love you Mom! XOXO###imported-begin###Maryanne Beck###imported-end###

“ My Aunt Marion was my other mother while I was growing up and spent summers in Salem. She was always so kind and loving and always welcomed friends and family into her home. I have the most wonderful memories of time with her. My heart is truly sad but she will always have a very special place in my heart. She will be dearly missed.###imported-begin###Jane Parrish McNally###imported-end###

“ Moe and Phil,

Our hearts are heavy for you but also rejoice that one day we will see Marion in Heaven. What a day of rejoicing that will be. We have grown to love her as we love you both and your dear family. It is so comforting to look over the way and know you are just a stones throw away, not that we throw stones, :) but please know that we are your praying neighbors and friends to be with you through this transition time. We love you all dearly.###imported-begin###Terry and Vi Shankle###imported-end###

“ What precious promises we have in God's Word! While we mourn the loss of a loved one, we give glory to God for a home in heaven. All the more precious is I Thess. 4:17, "we shall be caught up together." May God comfort your family in this time of loss.

“ To the Parrish Family,

We remembr Marion as a devoted mother and church goer. She always had the best interests of her family at heart. More than that, Marion had a friendly way, a smile and a kind word, to give to all who knew her. Seems like yesterday that we greeted each other on the Salem village streets or at Holy Cross Church..

Losing a mother is not easy, but we are sure that you will have many happy memories to sustain you.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Sincerely,
