I remember your mother from my days at Davenport Junior High School. It was during school year '63-64-during that year JFK was shot. It was a year of transition for me-as it was the first year -I had to changes class rooms.Your mother was a delight -she loved history & she dearly loved you.
My mother passed in 2006 -I know you have fond memories of both of your parents.I will always remember Mrs.Coan as someone who cared about her students. She was a hero.##imported-begin##Glenn Masters##imported-end##
