“ Here are some pics of Mama and her sisters along with other family members. I truly miss her. As many of you know my mother Margretha stayed with her this past year or more. I would stay with her to give my mother a break. I sure do miss those nights, watching ball games and talking about any and everything. She was a blessing!

“ So many wonderful memories of Aunt Margie, it is difficult to choose one! However, her love of flowers was obvious. When she and Aunt Betty, who lived across the street, went anywhere together they would stop to pick flowers in a stranger's yard.

“ My heartfelt sympathy in the death of Marjorie. She was a true Southern Christian Lady and loved by so many people. She loved Rook card games and I met her as we played with Della Mae and Bill Roberts with Marjorie and Verlon often as it was such a good social. I loved watching her work in her flower garden which she kept full of flowers. May God wrap you in His love with mercy and grace during this difficult time. May God bless each of you with His peace like no other.

“ Marjorie was a special lady, every Sunday afternoon we all gathered at my Grandma Emory's house and sit around the kitchen table and drink coffee and catch up on the news. Clara always had a cold biscuit with her coffee. Oh such great time we all had. Now they are all gone. Thank you, God, for all of the memories. I know she will be missed by all who knew her.
