“ *Dear Jane,
I am sorry for the loss of your mother. I remember her from the the years of our childhood as a sweet lady who understood that I didn't like tea, even though I was too shy to say so. She once told me that tea was an aquired taste, as she took my glass of tea and replaced it with another drink. All without making me feel embarrassed. I so enjoyed visiting your home to play during our years at Duncan Elementary. Your mother and father were so nice. Do you remeber you and your dad driving me home after one such play time? It was dusk, and clouds were gathering, your sweet mother or dad, I'm not sure which, thought I would be frightened to walk home, as I usually did, in such weather. My prayers are with you and your family during this time of loss and saddness.##imported-begin##Pam Henderson-Gurule##imported-end##*
