“ I knew Marjorie Pierce as "Grandma Pierce". I met her first in Kunsan, South Korea when I was 9 or 10 years old. My family became the new caretakers of the The Haven Serviceman's Center in Young Wha Dong. Although I haven't seen Grandma Pierce in a long time, we have kept track of her and her of us through out the years. I know she has prayed for us as we have for her. I remember her being a very caring lady. Her presence on this earth will be missed, but I know she is celebrating with her Lord right now. As I learned to say at The Haven....."See ya later, Grandma Pierce!"
