“ Uncle Ken, Connie and Ross,

I am so very sorry to hear about Aunt Marge. I will always remmeber when Uncle Ken and my mother brought Connie home from the hospital and I found out that she wasn't our baby. I got over it. She was wrapped up all in pink. She will be missed by all of us. And what I will miss the most is how she could always come up with a comment that was right on the money. One thing we all knew is she was loved and willbe missed.

“ Aunt Marge: I am so sorry to have learnred of your passing and know that you are in a better place. I always remember "Fuzzy Bill" aka Nana to me telling me stories about all of you growing up and always walked away with a lesson. I know you are with Nana, Uncles Homer and Leonard and Aunt Evelyn now and are watching down on us all.###imported-begin##Emily###imported-end##
