“ Ruth, I am so sorry to hear about Mark's passing. I know there are no words to comfort you right now, but I promise it won't always be this difficult. Please know that you can call me any time 864-908-7344. Mark was a great man and he will be missed. No mother should ever burry a child. Only the ones who have truely know and understand that pain. I will be home for Christmas and would love to stop by and clean your house, on me of course.##imported-begin##Shannon and Marty Hix##imported-end##

“ Mark, you have been such a good Father to our boys. We always talked through everything concerning the boys. That is going to be really difficult when I have decisions to make from here on out.

Thank you for always understanding me and hanging in there through the many years of health issues that I had.

I know that we will be together again. I know where you are and that you are reunited with many people that we both love dearly.

Today I don't say goodbye. I say I will see you later.

“ I am a friend of Hal's from work and think the world of him. I can only believe that his brother Mark was just as wonderful of a person as Hal is. May the Lord's choicest blessings be with your family to provide you with the hope and comfort of His love and the peace and happiness that Mark is now experiencing being with His Lord and Savior and those who have passed before him. Though we grieve for our loss, I can only imagine the joyful reunion Mark is experiencing and believe he is being well taken care of. Many warm thoughts and prayers for your family. God Bless you all.##imported-begin##Shelly Jordan##imported-end##

“ Dear Melissa, Jesse & Joshua, Our thoughts and prayers are with you all as you go through this time of great grieving and sorrow. May you find strength in knowing that Mark is with His Savior Jesus, in Heaven. I pray that the "The peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." (Phil 4:7) I also pray that the "God of all comfort" will comfort you during this time of loss. (2 Cor 2:3-4)

“ Melissa, Jesse, and Joshua,

With the greatest of sympathies, we extend sincere condolences in your time of sorrow.

Melissa, you and the boys were the center of Mark's life, and he loved to brag on all three of you every time I had the opportunity to talk with him. He truly loved you deeply.

May you experience God's grace in abundant measure during this difficult time.
