“ I know that you are in your Heavenly Home, where the roses never fade, you are no longer sick, your body has been restored. I will miss you, but I know that you had to go. As you crossed over they were welcoming you to the other side, as we said our final good-byes. You were a loving grandmother, a faithful wife, and a Wonderful Mother! With love Gloria.

“ My thoughts and prayers to all of the family during this time. Marsha was always full of fun and laughs. She was so good to me when Melanie and I were growing up together as friends.
