Then about 3 years the robbery you had and the bad wreck you were never Marshall not the same Marshall I knew. I know you showed me about the million dollars worth of Nashville stars that had give you .you were a victim like me and it's hard to recover. I had not a bit of insuance to cover my 7,000 dollars worth of stuff they took. I pray to God that you give your trailer and the rest to your sisters and Washington church because one of the boys that was in the stealing ring was in your trailer tonight and it look like it,s grandson that just got out of prison for stealing dirtbikes. and the Wallace boy and Justine cowgill and donna pack and tim brown and cody gosnell for desroying everybody's mailboxes and taking my red 2006 Ex-speed scooter 50 a few months back. “ Dear Mary and Ona,

I guess that we've not seen each other since about 1943, but no way could I forget you very special neighbors and school mates. I also remember Marshall and his dreams of music. Marshall enlisted on 17 April 1943 at Fort Jackson, and I enlisted in December 1944 at Fort Jackson, and along with a bunch of neighbors and friends ended up all over the world. Thank God that most of us came back. Well, Marshall's dreams ended up giving him a well known name in country music and I'm so proud to have known him.

May God Bless you.
