“ Ronel, my sincere condolences to you and all aunt Martie 's loved ones. My aunt Martie has always been my go to person in good and bad times. We became very close when we all lived in Pietersburg. She had the ability to listen and had a lot of common sense. She always gave me good advice and most of all, she believed in me. I could cry on her shoulder and she made me feel loved. She provided a safe haven for me. I knew I could discuss anything with her. I will miss her with all my heart. Rest in peace aunt Martie. I will never forget what you meant to me. Until we meet again.

“ RIV Tannie Martie. Onthou die tye wat ons by jou en Oom Paul in Ludritz en Pietersburg gekuier het. Jy was altyd liefdevol en gehou daarvan om stories vertel. Jy was altyd so lief vir die diere by jou huis in Leeupoort. Jy het gereeld vertel hoe mak die wilde diere daar was en hoe jy hulle gevoer het. Jy het ñ vol lewe hier op aarde gehad en het baie mense aangeraak. Nou kan jy die ewige lewe met ons Here Jesus beleef. Soos hulle in Engels sê: Until we meet again. 💔🙏🌸

“ I will never forget the beautiful times we spent talking together and playing with Buddy. Martie was a precious and wise woman who knew her own mind and loved her family dearly. So thankful to have known her. I love you Martie - Thank you for the gift of your friendship and for the gift of Buddy. We will love him as you did. Until we meet again. Susan & Scot Ballantyne
