“ Nancy,
Ken and I are so sad to learn of your Daddy’s and your Mom’s passing away.
Somehow it seems so hard to believe. The last times we saw them they were healthy and going to Pigeon Forge to meet his brothers for family vacations and your Mom was figuring how to best use their points to get as many days as possible! I guess that’s the way I’d rather remember them.
Nancy, I know you must feel lost without them because you’ve devoted much of your life to loving and caring for them. I surely know that deep grief you’re feeling. Everyone says that time heals, but it seems like just yesterday that God called Lori and my mother home. My heart still breaks because I miss them so much. But I must tell you that the pain is for the void left in my own life. I wouldn’t bring either of them back even if I could.
At this very moment your mom and dad and Lori and my mom are all singing and dancing at the feet of Jesus! They have no pain and no problems. They have mansions with streets made of gold, and there is no night for God himself is the glorious light. I think we will always grieve for them until that blessed day when God calls our name to meet them in glory!
We love you Nancy!
We pray that God gives you a peace that passes all understanding

“ I can't remember not having Martha in my life. I spent a great deal of time with Martha and Ernest, Aunt Nan and Uncle Manly, Mom and Dad, Brenda and Nancy during my growing years. We always got together on holidays or simply to visit with family. I can still hear the laughter and all the chatter that filled up a room when everyone was together. Martha was a wonderful cook and I can still smell her delicious macaroni. In my later years, I was fortunate to be able to travel with them some and we really enjoyed those times together. MY first job was at Southern Home in Greer and Martha worked there with me. She went on to work many more years prior to retiring. She was a dedicated wife, mother and loved Pleasant Grove Baptist Church. If you knew her, you knew exactly what she was about and what was important to her. You will be sorely missed in this life as it will change the lives of so many not to have you close. The good news is that you have been reunited with your beloved Ernest and all of the ones you cherished here and have made their way to eternity. There is no doubt that you will save a place for us as we meet someday on that beautiful shore. Thank you Nancy for the never ending dedication to your mom, your caregiving and patience is what true love and compassion is all about. Martha, thank you for loving us and leaving us with precious memories. Know that even though your soul is with Jesus, your spirit will forever live inside our hearts.....Diane Snow Tuell
