“ Dear Harold,
There are no words addequate to express the sorrow for Martha's passing. She was such a remarkable woman and the joy of your heart. I know this is such a hard time for you, but there's a loving God to comfort and care for you. Let Him. Spend your time with those who love Him and love you. I'm sorry I could not be there for you yesterday, but my thoughts were there. May you have the peace of Christ to carry you through this.
Love and Blessings,

“ Harold, I was so sorry to hear of Martha's passing. I was a classmate of hers and was so pleased that you and her were able to attend our reunion a few weeks ago. She looked like a picture of health. Tom (my husband) and I both commented how much better looking she was now. You must have really taken good care of her. Our thoughts and prayers will be with you and your son. Please take care and know that you will be in our prayers and she will very much be missed. God bless you and yours in this time of greatfulness to God for her intervention into your and our lives.

“ Harold,

I was informed of Marth's passing by Sue Brown (Cousin) this past Saturday. I don't think I have ever met you, however I have known Martha from way back. She and I rode together to Guilford College several times. She did better than I did, in that she finished and I didn't.

I am saddened that she has passed, because she is in my age group (69) and there seems to be to many "young people " leaving us too early.

Please accept my sincere thoughts and prayers for your loss, and I will always remember Martha as a kind and loving person, even though I had not been in touch with her in several years.

I would like to make a Memorial, in her name, to the East Bend Library Building Fund. My dad, Thomas (Tom) W. Perkins, has worked for the Library at East Bend since he and Mother, Jamie Smitherman Perkins, (deceased) moved back to East Bend in 1978. Again please accept my sympathy in your loss, and ours also.

“ Martha was one of the many Hunt family cousins born to the children of Joe and Cora Hunt of Yadkin County, N.C. Those of us who attended the family gatherings as children, Martha included, have fond memories of visits to the Hunt farm. Throughout her life, Martha was always a loyal attendee of annual Hunt reunions and kept a strong interest in the family history.##imported-begin##Charles & Jane Farlow##imported-end##
