“ Mrs. Boyter , You know me by working at Greer Kidney ,, I just recently left there and Mr. Boyter was one of my favorites and you too.. I know he is in a better, place ..I always had fun with you and Mr. Boyter, he use to tell me all the time,you know ever-since I had that stroke I can't get my words out.... and he and I would just Laugh!

And I will always remember him saying hey,, will you cover me up and smile

I really enjoyed taking care of him and you have my deepest sympathy..and do please take..

Respectfully

“ My Dear Doris,

It is very difficult to compose what I want to say to you and the family, for my mind keeps bringing back memories of the past. We lived in such a wonderful place surrounded by great neighbors and friends. It won't be the same with Marvin gone, but I know he is no longer burdened with these human conditions that surround us. May our Lord bless each of you.
