“ My wife and I were saddened to learn of the passing of our good friend and neighbor, Marvin Vest. He was a fine Christian gentleman, a good neighbor, and a loyal friend. Marvin was kind, considerate, generous, and helpful to those around him. He was a great blessing to my Mom and Dad before their deaths. My parents esteemed and loved him dearly. Marvin was a great encouragement to people. He was always so upbeat, cheerful, and positive in outlook. I will never forget his infectious smile that caused you to smile and feel joy even when things weren't going your way.

Yes, Bro. Marvin Vest was a blessing to a great many people--his friends and neighbors. Surely, he will be missed but we rejoice that he is now reunited with his precious wife in heaven as well as enjoying the presence of his Lord and Savior, whom he adored. Our prayers are that our Lord will comfort the hearts of his family and loved ones.

With sincere sympathy,

“ We are so sorry to hear of Marvin's passing. He was such a dear man. I remember when I was the Activity Director at Roger Huntington Nursing home he and his sister would come and sing and play the piano for our worship service once a month and more if I needed them. All of our elders looked forward to them coming. He always talked about how he loved his family and it was just a treat for me and our elderly when he would bring Nicole with him. He was always loved. I never seem him so excited as when he saved one of the men who worked in the kitchen area in the elevator. He had to come hunt me down afterwards and tell me about it. He was so excited that he had tears in his eyes. He was one of a kind and will be missed. Just wish I had kept in closer contact with him throughout the years. He was always glad to see me and I felt the same toward him. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. Lonni and Michael Brown
