“ I LOVED going up the road to the Padgett's home. There were six children there and I am an only child. We had so much fun. Mary was delightful and really, really sweet. All the children are dear to me and thought of often. You will be in my prayers. Losing your mother is hard no matter how long she's been on Earth. I know there is rejoicing in heaven. Precious, sweet memories. Larry sends his thoughts and prayers also. We love you all. Joy Bridwell Owings

Susie, Janice, Karon, Sonny, Jimmy and Danny. I was so sad to hear about your sweet precious mom. She was like a second mom to me. I remember the time when you guys moved to Florida I cried for a week because I missed you guys. We finally got to come see you in St. Pete and those were precious memories. I love you all and I loved your sweet mom.
