“ Keith, I am so sorry to here about your mom. It had been awhile since I had seen her when I was going to Mt. Lebanon but I can remember her always smiling. I lost my mom about 15 months ago and I still miss her everyday. I know you are going to miss her but she is in heaven with my mom who is now cancer and pain free. May God bless you and your family at this time. I will remember you in my prayers.##imported-begin##Ginger Arms Cook##imported-end##

“ John, Denise & Keith

Here is a poem that was sent to me by Lois Stokes when her mother passed and I wanted to share it with you.

When the unexpected reminders hit, it's the expected and know Truths that carry us. Truths like:

"Do not grieve, for My joy shall be your strength." Nehemiah 8:10

"In my Father's house are many rooms; if it were not so, I would have told you. I am going there to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you may also be where I am." John 14:2-3

"Therefore we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal." 2 Corinthians 4:16-18

"Therefore we are always confident and know that as long as we are at home in the body we are away from the Lord. We live by faith, not by sight. We are confident, I say, and would prefer to be away from the body and at home with the Lord." 2 Corinthians 4:6-8

"He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away." Revelation 21:4

Thank you Father, for your Truths. As long as I keep looking up, with You I will survive this with joy, peace and hope, As Your Son reminds us....

"What is impossible with men is possible with God." Luke 18:27###imported-begin##Deborah Trammell###imported-end##
