“ Herman, Doris and Family:
I have surely been thinking about all of you especially since the death of your mother. What a wonderful son you have been, Herman, and surely have no regrets. I have been away last week and missed you today when I went by your house to offer my heartfelt sympathy. Please know that I am with you during these days of loss, but remember it is only temporary. Love and sympathy, Mary Jean##imported-begin##maryjeantimmerman##imported-end##
