“ One vivid memory I have is walking down Douglas Street with Denise. We heard beautiful singing. We made our way up to I believe a 2nd for apt. Mary was ironing. Her door open, curtains flowing in the breeze. She was sing opera with all her heart. Denise joined in. It was so beautiful! I was mesmerize! Mary was the most vivacious women! I'm blessed to have known her ♡ Sing with the Angel's, beautiful lady♡♡♡

“ I enjoyed every opportunity I had to be around Mary and always looked forward to it. She was a pure delight. Always a funny story to share and had everyone in laughing. Such an endearing personality and as sweet as can possibly be. Mary was and is an absolute treasure. I am saddened to hear she is gone and I know she will be greatly missed. ❤️
