“ Marry was my best friend when I went to South Carolina to visit my grandparents my grandma was the one who took care of her and I had to go to work with her so I got to see Mary she was the sweetest old lady ever I cleaned her porch off and we feed the squirrels bread there was this one squirrel named buddy she liked him the most. She used to tell me all the story's of when she was younger she gave me her belt and a shirt I loved her she was my best friend she was the only one I would talk to other than my maw maw and grandpa Mike. When it was a day I had to go to work with maw maw she would wake me up and I would rush to get ready I got so excited to go see Mary. She was so beautiful to. I'll miss her one day I'll be with her 💕 -your bestest friend Aubree Webb
