“ My Friend Max,

You have my deepest sympathy. God has healed Mary. I went over to your cubicle at Fagen and I looked at the photo of you and Mary. I can only pray God gives me and Kenneth that same love. God gave Mary the best friend, husband and love with you! Please know that her life was not in vain because even in death she gives me courage and determination. Mary has fought the good fight and kept her faith. Things we see are temporal and things we can not (faith) are eternal. Your life and love is a beacon to us all! Kenneth and I pray for strength for you and your family with each new day. It's never good-bye but until we meet again. So until we meet again Mary, I'll be thinking of you!

Love,

“ Max, I'm so sorry your Mary is gone, but at the same time glad her suffering is ended. She has had such a long, hard fight, but she is in a much better place, with your son now. Of course you know these things. I know you will miss her - y'all had many years of a great life together, and it's not over - just temporarily interrupted. I wish I could attend the service, but Linda has an appointment Friday afternoon and I'll have to take her. I'll be thinking about you and your family.##imported-begin##Jack Lindler##imported-end##
