“ I just heard the sad news of Mary's passing, I am also a friend, and met Mary through our joy of collecting Hallmark Christmas Ornaments and met Mary back in 1991 when I was managing the local Hallmark store in Independence, MO. It was always a joy seeing her walk into the store, and we became fast friends. She usually always had a smile on her face, and it not, was not afraid to tell you what she thought. (I respected that.) Her gruff exterior was a facade, and I'm so glad I got to know her, and to know her heart. I was thrilled I got to reconnect with her a couple years ago when I ran into her at the Hallmark Convention here in Kansas City, and it was then that I found out that she had moved away to be closer to family. I wish you peace and love in this difficult time.

“ Thank you all from Mary's family. Thank you for the encouragement to get well and for the prayers and well wishes. Thank you for the sympathy cards and thoughts, the ham and flowers. Thank you for the kind words about Mom and for being such good friends to her. Her son Ed and all her family.

“ My deepest sympathy on the loss of your mom. It has to be reassuring to know that she is with the Lord. I'm also one of your mom's Hallmark pals and I'll always remember how I was a bit afraid of her after she wrote me the first time back in 2001 but as time went on I found out what a heart of gold your mom had. She had so much faith, energy, and love for her family, She will be missed.

“ I'm another one of Mary's Hallmark ornament friends. It is hard to believe that she won't be in Kansas City in August at the event and that I won't get an EMail from her describing what she'd been doing. Mary genuinely cared about people and befriended many on her journey through life. I was always in awe of how much she could pack into a day. I hope the family will take their memories of her and wrap them around their shoulders like a warm blanket to hold tight for the rest of their lives. I think Mary would have liked that.

“ My deepest condolences to Mary's friends and family on her passing. I first met Mary online, thru the Yulelog group many years ago and I always enjoyed seeing and talking with her live, whenever we were both at a Hallmark event. I will miss seeing her at the event this year in Kansas City!

“ To the family, please accept my deepest sympathies on your loss. No words express the difficulty of coping with death although I pray the promise God gives in the scriptures strengthen you through this ordeal. “He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces...” Isaiah 25:8

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends on the passing of Mary Warning! I know she cared about them greatly! I knew Mary from when I used to go to Yulelog (like many who have made their way here today) and she made several of the recipes that I had shared on Yulelog for desserts (Strawberry Pie and Turtle Trifle). I also sold her my Here Comes Santa Ornament several years ago on Ebay and was glad I sold it to someone I knew. She will be enormously missed.

I met Mary on the Hallmark Collectors page. She was one of few who welcomed me. I sent her several Hallmark employee ornaments. She was very sweet and friendly. RIP Mary.

“ I am also one of Mary's Hallmark Ornament Collector friends. I first met Mary in Boise, Idaho in 2003 at a Hallmark Event and was shocked to find out that she had driven all the way from Independence, Missouri by herself! But, that is exactly who she was: Strong, independent and funny! I could always remember her birthday on September 24th, because it was my wedding anniversary. Mary was a very special lady and I always looked forward to seeing her at the next Hallmark Event and I will miss her. My thoughts and prayers will be with her entire family as you go through this difficult time.

“ My Sympathies go out to the Family of Mary. I met Mary through a Hallmark ornament discussion group called Yulelog. I finally saw her in 2005 at the St. Louis Hallmark Event. It turned out she sat at the same table as my Local Club. After that, we saw each other at the following Events and emailed each other on and off. MaryAnn Fritz

“Mary was my funny friend. She was so feisty and humorous. You would have to be if you worked for the IRS for a long time. I always looked forward to hearing from her. I miss her already and can't imagine the loss her family feels. I pray that they will be comforted, in time & for now, be nestled under the Father's wing, giving the peace that passes all understanding.

One of Mary's many buddies.
