“ We are so sorry for your loss. Marylise was a beautiful child and a joy to be around. We had the privilege of spending time with her through Rob and Misty and their girls. She really enjoyed our trips to the "She Shed" to make crafts and spend time with Misty and "the girls". Sometime she would give me something that she made after our day of fun. She made the cutest Easter wreath with spring flowers, ribbon and Easter eggs. I will always cherish it and think of her when I display it on my front door in the spring. Our thoughts and prayers are will you. Ann and Scoot Mann

“ I had the privilege of teaching Marylise in my Sunday School class during her 6th grade year (last year). I planned a pool party on July 2, 2024 for my little class and she was one of 5 students that came! I'll never forget her purple towel, big purple pool bag and her cheetah print bathing suit (which also had a touch of purple!) She had the best time playing with the other kids in the pool, playing volleyball with my pink plastic beach ball and watermelon one too! Watching her run around my yard throwing the big plastic balls at each other was such a thrill to watch and will be a lifetime memory. I was so happy to see her having a great time! While we were on the deck talking, I asked her to tell me more about her health history since I wanted to hear it from her! Her beautiful blue eyes looked straight into mine as she was told me the name of her heart condition and that she was going to have another procedure on August 18th in Charleston but that it would “be ok” ... she was such a Brave child and didn't seem scared about it! I was amazed at her calmness! I told her that she was a very brave little girl and she just smiled back at me with that sweet smile of hers. I told her we would pray about that appointment in Charleston as a class! She had fun eating the pizza and brownies with the others as they sat around talking. I'll never forget that day because it was as much a thrill for me, as it was for her. Marylise was a beautiful child and I'll always treasure her and that day in my heart!💜💕🙏 Jeremiah 33:3
