“ I remember when Maudie worked at Southern Bleachery. Many afternoons when my mother came to Southern Bleachery to pick up my daddy, Maudie would stop by our car and speak to us. I'll never forget when she was on the TV show "Play Your Hunch". She and a group of other people were asked by the host to give the name of their home town. The contestants had to guess if the people were telling the truth. I remember that Maudie was not ashamed to tell that she was from Taylors. My deepest sympathy goes out to the Smith family.

I've known Maudie since I was a child at Stephenson UMC. My deepest sympathies to the family. She will be missed, but she is with the Lord now.

I came to know Maudie while working with her at Southern Bleachery & Print Works. Our friendship lasted beyond there and until now. I will always remember her as a dear friend and I will miss her.
