“ Jane, You and your family are in our prayers at this time of loss of your mother. I can still recall their "regular" spot during worship services at church. I missed them when they weren't there. May God be very near and dear to you all during the following days.##imported-begin##Doris Berry Howell##imported-end##

“ Cecil, Jane, Ron, Mendi, Ben and family, We are praying that He who welcomed Maxie into his loving arms will also send His Comforter to be close to you in this time of sorrow. May He provide strength and also give you fresh loving memories of Maxie, and be close to as you think of her and her life in this time of loss. Maxie surely was one of His dear ones, and was also dear to so many of us who knew her in the ways she gave of her self in so many unpretentious ways. She was like a rare flower, delicate and beautiful. She will be missed.##imported-begin##Bill and Ylva Byars##imported-end##

“ Cecil, David and Jane, As I sat here and read the obit for Maxine so many memories of her flooded my mind. Memories of all the times I was at your house when David and I were growing up to the wonderful mints Maxine always made for wedding showers. She was such a wonderful friend to my Mom. Anytime I saw her, she would speak and would smile her beautiful smile. My thoughts and prayers are with each one of you. Hold tight to the memories, death will never take them away. Love to all, Mary Susan##imported-begin##Mary Susan Woodruff Pearson##imported-end##

“ It is with heavy hearts that we share your loss and the difficult times that were precursor to your loss. We pray for healing from the hand of our Father. He allows all of us to share the sad times and difficult times. In drawing together to comfort each other we realize that we are all in the same family of God. We love you.##imported-begin##Eddie & Jan Brown##imported-end##
