“ I am so sorry about Maxine. I read it on Facebook. When I was going to the same church Randy and Brenda went I always asked about Maxine how she was doing. She was a wonderful person. Years ago I remember Dwight told me he went to her house on a service call. Some time after that she sent him a thank you note to Dwight for not charging her. That was really sweet. I won't be able to come to visitation, but I am sending my love and prayers. Love, Cathy Mills

“ Maxine and I were able to meet each other many years after being friends with my son and daughter-in-law for years before that, she and I found each other quite by accident. We were able to spend a lot of time together after that, and her constant joy just filled up my heart. Unfortunately we had not had much time recently together, but she was daily on my mind and in my heart. Her love and commitment for her family was endless and as wide as the heavens. I know her smile will be missed by her closest family, but she is in God's hands and living large with the Lord. Sympathies to her beloveds, and will be praying for peace and comfort in the days and weeks to come.....

I was lucky to meet Ms. Maxine and laugh at her funny jokes on facebook. What a lovely spirited lady she was. Jada, I hope that you and your family will smile when you think about the joy and sunshine she brought to so many.
