“ Dear Family:

We have many pleasant memories of Meda and Floyd (Red) as we visited with them many times in the Duncan home. Many of the family members have gone on now, and we are left with fond memories. We do not weep , but rejoice in the realization that they are with the Savior now.

We do hope that the Lord does have a sense of humor with some of these characters up there with him. What a humor they had.

Meda and all the others will be greatly missed.

Your family is in our prayers.##imported-begin##David E. White, Jjoyce D. White, and Willie Mae Duncan##imported-end##

“ It was on a very hot evening on July 18, 2008 that Bill and I met Meda Land at Burnsview Auction at a gospel singing and I told her at the time that she was one of these people that you feel like you have known all your life. I had looked forward to being her friend for a long time, however, our Lord wanted her to come home to him now. To her family, who we've never met, we wish to express our grief for our loss, and you can rest assured we will see her again.##imported-begin##Marie Cole Clark & Bill Clark##imported-end##
