

Melba James

November 25, 1937 - March 14, 2019

Melba Stiffler James, 81, passed away March 14, 2019.

A native of Silsbee, Texas, she was a daughter of the late Samuel Arthur and Marie Stiffler.

Surviving are two sons, Mark James (Sara) of Indiana and Clay James of Greenville and four grandchildren, Conner Matthews, Alexandra Matthews, Jacob Matthews and Hannah Matthews.

She was predeceased by a brother, Sammie Stiffler and a sister, Sue O'Bannion.

A private memorial service will be held at a later date.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Tribute Wall

JK

“ I was so sorry to learn of Gaye's death. She was so kind to me when I was living in Baton Rouge and she and my cousin, Don were living there. I went to work when my baby, Eddie was only 4 months old and Gaye was kind enough to keep him during the day for me as I worked. She had a small child of her own, but took such good care of Eddie. I really appreciated that. I will miss her.

Jeanette Keyser - March 16, 2019 at 12:42 PM