“ My heart was broken when I received the news about Melissa. I know from personal experience that losing a loved one is the worst feeling in the world. So many questions and so little answers. But we don't have to have all the answers because the one who created us, the one who give and takes away, the one who saved us from our sins, already has ALL the answers. God needed Melissa up there with him for some reason, just like he needed Mama Tut. Our cups are empty now but we will fill them up again with all the wonderful memories that we have. Your entire family is in our prayers and remember, one day you will see Melissa again. We love you guys!##imported-begin##Emily Stepp McDowell##imported-end##
