“ Grandpa,

I wish things had not turned out the way they had. I wish I was able to get to know you better and spend more time with you. Although I was not around alot, I do care alot about you. The times I was around, you are the one and only person who sticks out and I remember. Maybe because you just told it like it is, as do I. I assume I got the outspokenness from you. I am glad you were able to meet and hold Natalie, unlike grandma. I wish she had the chance to, but atleast you did. I know you are happier now, you are in a better place and with grandma. You will not be forgotten. We love you,
