

Merzie Lee Sammons Styles

January 10, 1928 - January 18, 2016

Merzie Lee Sammons Styles, 88, of 1306 Reid School Road, widow of James Frank Styles, died January 18, 2016 at her home.

A native of Greenville County, daughter of the late Ernest E. and Lilie Crumley Sammons, she was a retired employee of Piedmont Shirt and an active member of Pebble Creek Baptist Church.

Surviving are one daughter, Mary (Dave) Riddle of Honea Path; four sisters, Margaret Bailey, Willie Hughes both of Taylors, Freddie Jameson and Grace Gunter both of Greenville; one grandchild, Amy Riddle and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Styles was predeceased by two brothers, Elbert Sammons and Joe Sammons.

Funeral services will be held 2:00 p.m. Thursday at Pebble Creek Baptist Church conducted by Rev. Bob Norman and Deacon Jeff Mace. Burial will follow in Jackson Grove United Methodist Church.

Visitation will be held 12:30-1:45 p.m. Thursday at Pebble Creek Baptist Church.

The families are at their respective homes.

The family would like to thank her sister, Margaret Bailey her caregiver and Gentiva Hospice for their loving care.

Memorials may be made to Pebble Creek Baptist Church, 1300 Reid School Road, Taylors, SC 29687.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Cemetery Details

Jackson Grove Methodist Church

1401 Jackson Grove Road
Travelers Rest, SC 29690

Previous Events

Visitation

JAN 21. 12:30 PM - 1:45 PM (ET)

Pebble Creek Baptist Church
Taylors, SC 29687

Service

JAN 21. 2:00 PM (ET)

Pebble Creek Baptist Church
1300 Reid School Road
Taylors, SC 29687

Tribute Wall

AH

“Margaret you and your family are in my prayers at this time. I pray that God will give you peace by helping you remember the good times you had with Merzie. In Christiam love. Ann Henson

---

Ann Henson - January 19, 2016 at 10:04 PM