

Michael Rhett Aho

August 6, 1998 - April 2, 2026

Michael Rhett Aho, 27, passed away unexpectedly on April 2, 2026.

Born August 6, 1998, to Rhett Aho (Amanda) of Greer, South Carolina and Rebecca Fowler (Jeff) of Hancock, Michigan. Michael was a son, father, and a friend to many, known for his loving nature and goofy sense of humor. He worked in construction, mainly concrete. From a young age he had a loving passion for heavy metal music and was a member of several local bands. Surviving in addition to his parents is the mother of his children and best friend, Kayla Lee King of Taylors, South Carolina; four children, Easton, Keaton, Odyssey, and Declan all of Taylors, South Carolina; four brothers, James Aho of Taylors, South Carolina, Braden Aho of Taylors, South Carolina, Ryland Aho of Greer, South Carolina, and Ryker Aho of Greer, South Carolina; three sisters, Paige Aho of Greenville, South Carolina, Jorja Aho of Greer, South Carolina, and Reagan Aho of Greer, South Carolina; paternal grandparents, Carl and Diane Aho of Greenville, South Carolina; and maternal grandparents, Don DeForge of Houghton, Michigan and Melissa Harma of Dollar Bay, Michigan.

Mr. Aho was predeceased by maternal grandparents, Julie DeForge and Jerry Harma, and paternal grandmother, Deborah Aho.

A Celebration of Life will be held 3:00 p.m., Friday, April 10, 2026, at Beulah Land, 30 North Barton Road, Taylors, South Carolina 29687, conducted by Pastor Doug Coponen, Pastor Wayne Hilman, and Mr. Aaron Aho.

The family will be at their respective homes.
